PUBLIC NOTICE. Is hereby given—
THAT the subscriber hath been designated by the Secretary of the Treasury, to receive from individuals, such blank STAMPS as may be presented within the space of four months from the date hereof, and to pay the value thereof, deducting in all cases seven and one half per cent, in conformity to an act of Congress, entitled "An act to repeal the internal taxes."

JAMES MORRISON.

Supervisor.

STATE OF KENTUCKY,

SUPERVISOR'S OFFICE,

July 8th, 1852.

IN pursuance of a direction of the act of Congress of the 16th March last, entitled "An act to amend the act entitled an act to lay and collect a direct tax within the United States," public notification is hereby made, that transcripts from the tax lists, of the several collectors of direct tax, in the State of Kentucky, containing all lands, which according to the provisions of the act to lay and collect a direct tax, are liable to be sold for non payment of the said tax, specifying the persons in whose names the assessments were originally made, and the sums respectively due thereon, are lodged in this office, and are open to the free inspection of all concerned.

And in further pursuance of the said amendatory act, notice is hereby given, that the several collectors of direct tax in the District or State of Kentucky, will proceed at the hour of 12 o'clock, on the respective days, and at the places following, in their respective Collection Districts, and to continue the same in like manner, from day to day, until completed, to sell at public sale so much of all lands in the Districts respectively named, on which any part of the tax remain unpaid, at the expiration of six months from the date hereof, as will be sufficient to satisfy the same, together with all costs and charges incurred in preparing for advertising, and making the sales, that is to say,

On the fourteenth day of February next at Lexington, by George Manfell, Collector of the 1st Collection District, composed of the counties of Fayette and Jefferson—and on the seventeenth of January at Paris, by George Manfell, being also Collector of the 2d Collection District, composed of Bourbon county—on the fourteenth of February at Baldpate, by Daniel L. Morrison, Collector of the 3d Collection District, composed of the counties of Hardin, Nelson, and that part of Bullitt county lying South of Salt river—and on the twenty-fourth of January at Harrodsburg, by John Harbison, Collector of the 4th Collection District, composed of the counties of Mercer, Washington, and that part of Franklin county lying South of Kentucky river—and on the fourteenth of February at Stanford, by Joseph Ballinger, Collector of the 5th Collection District, for the counties of Lincoln, and Garrard—and on the first Monday in March at Richmond, in Madison county, being the balance of said district—and on the seventh of February at Cynthiana, by Isaac Holeman, Collector of the 6th Collection District, composed of the counties of Campbell and Harrison—and on the seventeenth of January at Greenburg, by John Crow, Collector of the 7th Collection District, composed of the county of Green, and that part of Warren county lying East of Big Barren river—and on the twenty-fourth of January at Frankfort, by William Hubbell, Collector of the 8th Collection District, composed of the counties of Woodford, Scott, and that part of Franklin county lying North of Kentucky river—and on the seventh of February at Louisville, by James Macconnel, Collector of the 9th Collection District, composed of the counties of Jefferson, Shelby, and that part of Bullitt county lying North of Salt river—and on the twenty-fourth of January at Washington, by Peter Machir, Collector of the 10th Collection District, composed of the counties of Mason, Bracken and Fleming—and on the 17th of January at Ruffelsville, by Willis Morgan, Collector of the 11th Collection District, composed of the counties of Logan, Christian, and that part of Warren county lying west of Big Barren river—and on the seventh day of February at Mount Sterling, by Thomas L. Patterson, Collector of the 12th Collection District, composed of the counties of Clarke and Montgomery.

And as this publication is the only one required to be made on this subject, the 2d, 3d, 4th, 5th, and 6th sections of the amendatory act referred to, are subjoined hereto, for the more perfect information of all concerned, and to place those whose lands may have been assessed in wrong names, the more certainly on their guard.

JAMES MORRISON,

Supervisor, Dist. of Ohio.

Note.—The counties mentioned above, have a reference to the situation in which they stood in October 1798.

EXTRACT FROM THE LAW.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That in case of failure on the part of the owner or owners of the aforesaid lands to pay within the aforesaid time, the full amount of tax due thereon, the collectors under the directions, and with the approbation of their respective supervisors, shall immediately proceed to sell at public sale, at the times and places mentioned in the advertisement of the supervisor. So much of the lands aforesaid as may be sufficient to satisfy the same, together with all the costs and charges of preparing lists, advertising and notifying as aforesaid, and of sales.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the aforesaid tax, including all costs and charges as aforesaid, shall be and remain a lien upon all lands, and other real estate on which the same has been assessed, until the tax due upon the same, including all costs and charges, shall have been collected, or until a sale shall have been effected, according to the provision of this act, or of the act to which this is a supplement.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That in all cases wherein any tract of land may have been assessed in one assessment, which, at the time when such assessment was made, was actually divided into two or more distinct parcels, each parcel having one or more distinct proprietor or proprietors, it shall be the duty of the collector, to receive in manner aforesaid, from any proprietor or proprietors thus situated, his or their proportion of the tax due upon such tract; and thereupon, the land of the proprietor, or proprietors, upon which the tax shall have been thus paid, shall be forever discharged from any part of the tax due under the original assessment.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That in any case in which it may have happened that lands actually belonging to one person, may have been, or hereafter shall be assessed in the name of another, and no sale of the same shall yet have been made, the same proceedings shall be had for the sale of the aforesaid lands, in order to raise the tax assessed in relation to the same, as is provided by the eleventh section of the act to which this is a supplement, in the case of lands assessed, the owner whereof is unknown; and such sale shall transfer and pass to the purchasers, a good and effectual title.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That the right of redemption referred to the owners of lands and tenements sold under this act, or the act to which this is a supplement, shall, in no wise, be affected or impaired: Provided always, that the owners of lands, which shall thus be sold after the passing of this act, in order to avail themselves of that right, shall make payment or tender of payment, within two years from the time of sale for the use of the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, of the amount of the said tax, costs and charges, with interest for the same, at the rate of twenty-five per cent. per annum.

TH. JEFFERSON,
President of the United States.

AN ACT

To amend an act, entitled "An act for the relief of sick and disabled seamen" and for other purposes.

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the monies heretofore collected in pursuance of the several acts "for the relief of sick and disabled seamen," and at present unexpended, together with the monies hereafter to be collected by authority of the before mentioned acts, shall constitute a general fund, which the President of the United States shall use and employ as circumstances shall require for the benefit and convenience of sick and disabled American seamen: Provided, that the sum of fifteen thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby appropriated for the erection of an hospital in the district of Massachusetts.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the President of the United States to cause such measures to be taken as, in his opinion, may be expedient for providing convenient accommodations, medical assistance, necessary attendance, and supplies for the relief of sick and disabled seamen of the United States who may be at or near the port of New-Orleans, in case the same can be done with the assent of the government having jurisdiction over the ports; and for this purpose, to establish such regulations, and to authorize the employment of such persons as he may judge proper; and that for defraying the expense thereof, a sum not exceeding three thousand dollars be paid out of any moneys arising from the said fund not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That from and after the thirtieth day of June next, the master of every boat, raft or flat, belonging to any citizen of the United States which shall go down the Mississippi with intention to proceed to New-Orleans shall, on his arrival at Fort Adams, render to the collector or naval officer thereof, a true account of the number of persons employed on board such boat, raft or flat, and the time that each person has been so employed, and shall pay to the said collector or naval officer at the rate of twenty cents per month, for every person so employed, which sum, he is hereby authorized to retain out of the wages of such person; and the said collector or naval officer shall not give a clearance for such boat, raft or flat, to proceed on her voyage to New-Orleans, until an account be rendered to him of the number of persons employed on board such boat, raft or flat, and the money paid to him by the master or owner thereof; and if any such master shall render a false account of the number of persons, and the length of time they have severally been employed as is herein required, he shall forfeit and pay fifty dollars, which shall be applied to and shall make a part of the said general fund for the purposes of this act: Provided, that all persons employed in navigating any such boat, raft or flat, shall be considered as seamen of the United States, and entitled to the relief extended by law to sick and disabled seamen.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States be, and he is, hereby authorized to nominate and appoint, for the port of New-Orleans, a fit person to be director of the marine hospital of the United States, whose duties shall be in all instances the same as the directors of the marine hospital of the United States, as directed and required by the acts, entitled "an act for the relief of sick and disabled seamen."

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That each and every director of the marine hospital within the United States shall, if it can with convenience be done, admit into the hospital of which he is director, sick foreign seamen, on the application of the master or commander of any foreign vessel to which such seaman may belong; and each foreign vessel admitted shall be subject to a charge of twenty-five cents per day for each day he may remain in the hospital, the payment of which, the master or commander of such foreign vessel shall make to the collector of the district in which such hospital is situated; and the collector shall not grant a clearance to any foreign vessel, until the money due from such master or commander, in manner and form aforesaid, shall be paid; and the director of each hospital is hereby directed under the penalty of fifty dollars, to make out the accounts against each foreign seaman that may be placed in the hospital under his direction, and render the same to the collector.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That the collectors shall pay the money collected, by virtue of this and the acts to which this is an amendment, into the treasury of the United States, and be accountable therefor, and receive the same commission thereon, as for other money by them collected.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That each and every director of the marine hospital, shall be accountable to the treasury of the United States, for the money by them received in the same manner as other receivers of public money, and for the sums by them expended shall be allowed a commission at the rate of one per cent.

LONDON, May 17.

Symptoms of Discontent in France.
We are assured by a private letter, that a few days ago (we believe on the 5th) an attempt was made at the Paris parade on the life of Buonaparte. The letter further states, that the whole particulars of this affair were sent to the English government; and probably they were brought by Mr. Mandeville. We have no further information by the letter; but from other channels we hear that general Angereau, Mallens, and Bernadotte, who were known to view with an evil eye the encroaching power of Buonaparte, have been ordered to refuse 100 leagues from Paris. The Chief Consul has directed the raising of a corps of honours, consisting of 1,800 men, to protect his person.

Sunday's fortnight one of the regiments refused to congregate their colors, saying they had conquered without the assistance of the Pope, and would not accept of it. They have been marched from Paris also.—The new ecclesiastical establishment: meets with many difficulties, and the constitutional bishops of 1791 are no where well received. At Strasburg bishop Saurin was put in fear of his life, the people calling for the cardinal De Rohan. "Something of the same kind has occurred at Besancon."

May 20.

The registers which have been opened in France, for deciding whether Buonaparte shall be consul for life? are said to be filling very fast; and the vote will be almost unanimous. It has been proposed to add the further question, shall Buonaparte have the right of nominating his successor? This too, would probably pass in the affirmative and almost any thing else, amongst Frenchmen.—Carnot voted against Buonaparte, and added "I have signed my own proscription."—He was urged by some friends to erase this addition but firmly refused. Fearing the consequence, they opened a new register and omitted his name.

EXTRACT OF A LETTER—PARIS.

"The business of voting, in consequence of the appeal to the people, goes on with great alacrity. From the information which I have collected and compared, I think I may fairly say, that seven out of ten votes for the consulate for life, have also voted as an amendment, that Buonaparte shall be empowered to choose his successor." There is only one abatement which presents itself to this general likelihood of success; and this arises from the high price of bread, which is now in Paris at six sous, the pound. It is supposed that, from this circumstance, Buonaparte will lose 60,000 votes in Paris alone.

"Napier Tandy is not allowed to come to Paris."

May 23.

ETRURIA AND SWITZERLAND.

The King of Etruria seems to have given some offence to France. The Monitor quotes, without confuting it, an article from another paper, which declares, that civilization in Tuscany has gone back several centuries, that the King has given himself up entirely to the Pope, and that the whole state has been surrendered to the power of the church, that the Pope, in the same manner as his predecessors, may now depose the new Louis at pleasure, if he dare swerve from the obedience he has vowed to the holy see; and that Tuscany, once the cradle of the arts, is now likely to become their tomb, if the creator of the state Buonaparte, does not oppose it. Here is another independent state that requires the consular interference. Switzerland is a prey to factions—no factions and misery, all proceeding from the original violation of her freedom by France; "and the neighbouring nations will find it necessary," says France, "to interfere in order to prevent any injury being done to the safety of France and Austria! The King of Etruria under the guidance of Priests; and Buonaparte multi interferences, to prevent the arts from finding their tomb, where they once found the most powerful protection!"

Germany.

VIENNA, May 15.

According to the accounts of a defector from the camp of Passwan Oglou, it is false that the Balhaw had blockaded Widdin. He never sends parties as far as Nefter and Nicopolis, but his army is considerably weakened, being not above 6,000 men strong, of which 300 are Poles; his artillery is very numerous, but the greater part is unfit for service. However he has his army in regular, and abundantly supplied with provisions. For six months past he has confined himself entirely to the defensive.

Netherlands.

HAGUE, May 18.

It is currently said that our government will, in imitation of the French refuse to enter into any commercial treaty with Great Britain. They will not, however, act with too much rigour. They will barely receive such articles as are absolutely wanted; and reject all those which can be supplied at home, or some other countries in a direct alliance.

Switzerland.

BASLE, 18th of May.

Tranquillity is not yet entirely re-established at Underwald. It appears the partisans of the old system had formed a project to separate from the Helvetic republic—according to the project all the municipalities were to be destroyed; the Landsgemeinde plate only in some communities, where they were replaced by the ancient councils of the church. At Kernen, this council began its operation by the destruction of the armories of the republic, which have been replaced by those of the ancient canton of Underwald. Several French companies have been detached to this canton to re-establish order.

All the friends of order with the arrestation of the chiefs of this infurrection, and expect that the infurgent commune will be promptly disarmed. For this purpose the troops have been disposed in a manner to prevent any further resistance, but while Leman is quieted, Friburg evinces some symptoms of discontent. The curate of Molens has been assailed in his house by armed peasants, and forced to deliver papers relative to the taxes, which were in his possession. Measures have been taken to ensure the tranquillity of this canton also.

AMERICA.

Massachusetts.

BOSTON, July 14.

The London papers by the arrival from Liverpool, are of a few days later date than those before received. By the late advices it appears, that the whole French nation were busily engaged in resolving the question of Buonaparte's being First Magistrate for life, and something more.—To the question, shall he be Consul for life? Very few negatives were given. But to this, many added that assent, that he be empowered to nominate his successor; and others had gone so far as to vote in favor of his being declared an emperor, and the Imperial crown made hereditary in his family. During this development of opinion, Buonaparte secluded himself from public view, and the government was conducted by Camille Baccaris and Lebrun.

In Great Britain the new state of things did not appear to be permanent. The people appeared to be growing unpopular; and the prospect opening of the resumption of the reins of government by Mess. Pitt and Co. An event which is said to threaten a cessation of the pacific state of Europe. In their commercial relations France and Great Britain appeared as hostile to each other, as at any period of the war. The temper shown on this subject does not augur favorable to the expectation of the peace makers.

The north of Europe appeared to be perfectly tranquil.

The situation of the minor states in the neighborhood of France looked "equally." The popular conventions in Switzerland have been denounced in the French Monitor; and the conduct of the new made duke of Etruria had been declared to be such as call for the "procedure-correcting" interposition of the man who made that king what he is. There are strong indications of their being speedily admitted to become additional departments of one or the other of Buonaparte's republics or empires.

We do not see any accounts of the embarkation of French troops for Louisiana.

Maryland.

BALTIMORE, July 17.

The London Times of the 13th May, observes, "The cessation of Louisiana to the French by the definitive treaty, has, as we expected, occasioned a very great alarm and anxiety in the American states. It has been our opinion from the first that the effect of the British cabinet to this act of Spain, is founded in superior policy.—The rapid progress which America has made from the advantageous circumstances of enjoying peace, while so large a portion of the civilized world was engaged in war, made it necessary for this country to keep a watchful eye on her proceedings; whereas by bringing the restless power of France to her very back, we shall be relieved from our anxious and active vigilance, as the Americans will be fully employed in attending to the designs of their new ambitious and enterprising neighbors. It was on this principle that some of our politicians of the old school entertained the opinion, that we might attribute the loss of the American colonies to our rejection of Canada after the seven years war."

New-York.

NEW-YORK, July 16.

Yesterday morning arrived the fast sailing schooner Reubuck, Capt. Dawson, after an extraordinary passage of 38 days from Gibraltar. From captain Dawson, we have received an account of an engagement between two Algerine cruisers and a Portuguese man of war, off Malaga, wherein the former was victorious. The force of the Algerines was a frigate of 32 guns, (the same which was preyed by the American government to the Dayjanda zebeck; the number of their crews was about 700 men. The Portuguese was a frigate of 44 guns and 300 men. The Algerine commenced the attack, by immediately attempting to board their enemy, but were unsuccessful at their first onset—the action then became warm and bloody, both parties fighting with great fury, until all the Portuguese officers, except one midshipman were killed or wounded, and the seamen shamefully left their quarters, when the ship struck her colours after an action of three hours. The captain (who was a Frenchman) was killed early in the action. The prize was afterwards carried into Algiers.

Kentucky.

FRANKFORT, August 4.

A gentleman of respectability arrived in town on Sunday evening last from Natchez, which place he left the 14th July. We had not a personal interview with him, but learn that he informs that flour was selling at two dollars and a half per barrel, at vendue, and other articles of produce equally low, except whiskey, which was brisk at one dollar per gallon.—That the French had not arrived in Louisiana, but were daily expected.—That dispatches had been received by the Spanish commanders, which it was thought related to the arrival of the French; and which created lively sensations in the Mississippi Territory, it being thought they would make troublesome neighbors.

Departed this life on Wednesday night last, Mrs. SALLY McDOWELL, consort of Maj. JOSEPH McDOWELL, of Fayette county.—In her is lost an affectionate and prudent wife; a tender and provident mother; a humane and obliging neighbor; an intelligent and agreeable companion in life; and above all, a judiciously zealous advocate and observer of the precepts of Christianity.
—On Monday last, Mrs. MARGARET ASHBY, consort of Capt. NATHANIEL ASHBY, of Fayette county. She was esteemed by all who knew her for her amiable disposition and friendly deportment.
—On the 6th of July, at his house in Winchester Virginia, GEN. DANIEL MORGAN.

In consequence of the Members not attending the meeting of the TRAN-SYLVANIA PHILOSOPHICAL SOCIETY, on the 30th of July, it is deemed expedient to request their punctual attendance at the University, on Saturday the 14th instant, at 2 o'clock P. M.
JOHN R. BEDFORD, 2d W. S.

JUST PUBLISHED
And for sale at this Office, the second edition of
WILSON'S GRAMMAR,
Revised and Corrected.

THE Subscriber informs the public, that he, having received a full supply of the best Philadelphia BOOT-LEGS, together with sundry of the first rate WORK-MEN, is thereby enabled to furnish the fashionable part of the community with BOOTS or SHOES of the first quality, at his shop, opposite Mr. Bradford's printing office, Main street Lexington, where he will thankfully receive orders for any article in his profession. For the convenience of persons at a distance, who may wish him to supply them with Boots, &c. he has here fabricated a drafts by which they may take their own measures for boots and shoes as accurately as if done by himself; which measure being reduced to inches, and directed to him, will be as carefully attended to as if the party were present—and any work thus made and forwarded agreeably to order, that should not give satisfaction, will, if returned unaltered, be received & the money refunded.

Explanation of the Plate.
FOR BOOTS.
A A Length of the leg from the bottom of the heel, as high as you will the boot to extend.
B B Calf, measured round the thickest part.
C C Height of the calf.
C C Heel and inleap.
C D The inleap.
E E The ball of the foot, round the large joint of the great toe—Ascertain the exact length of the foot in inches.

FOR BOOTEEES.
The same as above, excepting the length, which should always be long enough to admit the calf to fill up the top of the Bootee, otherwise the top (being large enough) to admit the heel will look awkward unless filled up by the calf of the leg.
Be particularly in directing as to the thickness of the leather, fashion, shape &c.—All which shall be duly attended to, by

PARIS, May 22.
At the making up of the signed list, respecting the First Consul's being elected for life, the night before last only 7000 names appeared, and most of these military or place-men.

THE TURKISH RABBL.
The Cabinet of Vienna has received important information respecting Pashaw Oglou, by an Austrian, who served as a subaltern officer in the Pacha's army, but deserted from Willden on the 4th of April, to return home. He states, in an affidavit made before the Austrian commandant at Mehadia, that the Pashaw of Pashaw Oglou's army consists of Christians of almost every country in Europe, and amounts to 6000 men at the farthest, whom he pays and treats in the most liberal manner. Of natives and Janissaries he can always command from 10 to 12,000 men, who are better disciplined than the troops of the Grand Seigneur. Many men who escaped from Hungary, where they were retained prisoners of war, and near 1000 English emigrants, form separate corps.

LONDON, May 27.
Another attempt on Bonaparte.
A most extraordinary report has been bro't from Calais, by a vessel which arrived at Dover last night. It is, that the life of Bonaparte has been again attempted. The attempt is said to have been made upon the parade, at the Quinidi review. The conspirators surrounded him and stabbed him. Happily the wound was slight; an aid-de-camp, however, near him, was mortally wounded.
We give this as a rumor, without pledging ourselves in the slightest degree for its authenticity. It may only be an echo of a report circulated here some days ago, on the authority of some private accounts from Paris, which mentioned, that a conspiracy against Bonaparte's life had been planned, but had been discovered.

PRUSSIAN MEASURES.
According to letters from Rastidon of the 14th instant, very unpleasant rumours had been received there from Nuremberg, purporting, that the Imperial city would shortly be taken possession of by the Prussian troops. The alarm occasioned among the burghers of that place, jealous of their ancient liberties, became so serious, that the magistrats found themselves under the necessity of taking measures to secure the public tranquillity.

The King of Prussia will it is said, also take possession of the bishoprics of Bamberg and Wurzburg. These events are expected to take place immediately on the arrival of Baron Hardenberg, the Prussian Minister, who is shortly expected at Anspach. The court of Vienna has made remonstrances with regard to the execution of these measures, to the cabinet of Berlin, but has been very little attended to.

PHILADELPHIA, July 23.
HEALTH-OFFICE.
July 23d, 1802.

The Board of Health with great satisfaction, on, inform their fellow citizens, that the fever which lately appeared in the vicinity of Vine-street wharf has entirely subsided; and that the city and liberties are now as healthy as at any former period.—The Board nevertheless recommend to each families as have removed from that neighborhood, not to return to their dwellings without having them duly cleaned and white-washed.

Bills of health will be issued from this office as heretofore.

By order of the board.
CORNELIUS COMEGUES, President.

RENJ. F. GARRIGUES, Secretary.

Extract of a letter from a respectable gentleman in Bordeaux, to his friend in Boston, dated June 2.

"Politics, which for so many years has agitated the minds of our citizens, and which to judge from your newspapers, still distract those of yours, have subsided, and people begin to believe, that on the whole, as much real happiness may be felt in being governed as in governing; we therefore, have at last, awarded our Consul, all he has asked for; and every one thus far is contented."

SACRED TO THE MUSES.

A NEW SONG.

TUNE—VIVA LA.

Far from Europe's persecution,
To my fons a refuge give,
Hail the hour of retribution,
Hear me Heaven and let them live.

Freedom spoke—the Western World
Straight uprose at Heaven's command;
She saw and saw her flag unfurl'd
O'er Columbia, chosen land.

"Sacred be thou new creation!
"Form'd the cry'd to foster me;
"To my fons of every nation
"An asylum thou shalt be.

"I see—I see the tempest brewing
"In fury's dark womb;
"For to mankind plot my ruin,
"Thoughtless of their delin'd doom.

"Heroes you shall hail your thunder,
"Triumph wait the patriot train:
"Sages you shall burst asunder
"Fetters for'd in folly's brain.

"Beaming round with bright refulgence,
"Lo I see a sacred fount!
"Liberty and Independence
"Flame from Ocean to the Pole.

"O! when each returning season
"Brings the day devote to truth;
"Dear to Virtue, Devotion and Reason,
"Era of a Nation's Birth.

"While with heartfelt exultation
"Future patriots crowd my strains;
"Tombstones of this new creation
"Oh! what rapture shall be mine!"

The Goddess cease'd—while sweet emotion
Fill'd her breast and footh'd her care;
But oft the glanc'd across the ocean,
And sigh'd for suffering virtue there.

And most for the ill-fated Erin,
Fair, but fabled troubled life;
Struggling now, and now despairing
Victim of a filer's guilt.

ANECDOTE.

A gentleman hearing of the death of another, "I thought" said he to a person in company, "you told me his fever was gone off."
